PRACTICE PROFILE

Our Business

Riding & Watt is a firm of Professional Land Surveyors specializing in cadastral surveys and the provision of information and plans (digital and hardcopy) on all land matters, using up-to-date technology in the production thereof.

Our clients expect us to provide fast and accurate data. We do this by the integration of our databases with information from the Deeds Offices, the Surveyors-General and the Chief-Director of Surveys & Mapping.

Building Success Based on Experience

Riding & Watt's expertise in and extensive knowledge of the surveying business ensures that clients receive the best possible service. Our firm is a continuation of over 100 years land surveying services in our area (Worcester, Tulbagh, Ceres, Prince Alfred's Hamlet, the Koue Bokkeveld region, the Tanqua Karoo and the Swartland, Saldanha, Cederberg, Bergrivier and Hantam municipal areas).

Our Clients

Our customers are and have been the Government, local authorities, engineering firms, estate agents, farmers, consultants, the man in the street, in other words, everyone who has a need for land information.

Our History

1910 - 1953: Frank Theron Snr and Johnny Andrews provide Ceres with survey services from Worcester, practicing as Theron & Andrews.

1953 - 1960: Frank Theron Jnr opens the Ceres office. Ronald Watt joins in 1959, practicing as Theron, Andrews & Watt.

1960 - 1970: Anton Nel joins the Worcester branch. The firm is renamed Andrews, Watt & Nel.

1979: Claus Riding joins Andrews, Watt & Nel in Worcester.

1983: Claus Riding starts to manage the Ceres office and starts Riding & Watt.
